The skills can be completed by your students independently (or with a minimum help of parents!) There is also a mother letter that you can send home to help parents in your class understand how tasks work. I have included some "unstructured" tasks (such as counting or singing) but there is a pencil card / activity for every day. About 6 years ago I decided to simplify my program at home. You can download it free here (let the letters in the correct manuscript! If you need help to install the font, Jessica Meacham has a great font tutorial on her site. Every day you have a specific page in the package to be completed. I have Both Word and PDF files for these calendars. I needed something more structured than I could see has been done.
